

10 Lessons on Tourism

The challenge of reinventing destinations

Salvador Anton Clavé (ed)

Planeta, Barcelona. 2012

ISBN: 978-84-08-00401-1

Index

Authors

Introduction

The change of tourism model and the competitiveness of consolidated destinations.

The case of Vila-seca

Salvador Anton Clavé

Part I: Governance and territorial management

1. Urban planning for tourism and territorial management.

Josep Oliveras Samitier

2. Collaboration and consensus policies between administration and private sector.

Josep Ros Santasusana

3. Administrative innovation in the management of strategic local projects. The case of the Tourism and Leisure Centre as a unique element of territorial revitalization and of a model for overcoming disputes

Josep Ramon Fuentes i Gasó i Marina Rodríguez Beas

Part II: Sustainability and resource management

4. Policies of de-urbanization and the creation of public spaces

Juli Capella

5. Generation and management strategies for areas of natural interest

Jordi Blay Boqué

6. Instruments for beach recovery, maintenance and management

Francesc González Reverté

Part III: Competitiveness in tourism and boosting the productive economy

7. The transformation of the hotel development model

Juan Antonio Duro Moreno

8. Leadership, differentiation and social responsibility. The role of PortAventura.

Fernando Campa i Vicenç Veses

9. Building the image of a tourist destination

Noemí Rabassa Figueres

10. Knowledge Management tools for the enhancement of tourism competitiveness. The Science and Technology Park for Tourism and Leisure

Antonio Paolo Russo

Epilogue

The key points in the reinvention of coastal tourism destinations.

Salvador Anton Clavé

Bibliography